Love - Family

*You Are Loved
More Than You Know*

David (beloved)

*I have found David, son of Jesse, a man after my own heart;
he will do everything I want him to do.*

Acts 13:22

This is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins.

1 John 4:10

Dear friends, since God so loved us, we ought to love one another.

1 John 4:11

It's nice to think of family and how much they mean to us For with them we can be for real without a lot of fuss.
We kinda' know each other from the inside to the out, Though none of us are perfect we have lots to talk about.

It's around the kitchen table that we share a lot of stuff And all support each other whether times are good or tough.
Yes, it's great to have a family where we know each other well And share the stuff we have inside but don't to others tell.

There's nothing like a family's love to cheer your heart and soul Though they are scattered far and wide—perhaps from pole to pole, But email and the telephone help each to keep in touch And what a joy a family has who love each other much.

Sons (daughters) are a heritage from the Lord, children a reward from Him. Psalms 127:3

A House a Home

A house is just a building, folks, until a home is made,
It needs a yard where kids can play with lotsa' trees for shade.
The kitchen should be kinda' big for food is right good stuff, Its there we all can sit and chat until we've had enough.

Among the things a home should have is a big cookie jar, And there should be fun things to do when kids aren't up to par.
I like to think a home is where each one can tell his tale And share the feelings of his heart e'en though sometimes they fail.

No other place on planet earth-- no matter where we roam

Will warm our hearts and cheer our souls like when we're all at home.

The Meeting Place

I know there are important folks who meet day after day And they discuss important stuff in all the things they say.
I know someone must head a group no matter small or large And let the folks all gathered 'round know they're the one in charge.

And so the chairman of the board—perhaps the CEO,
Will tell the folks just sitting there the things they need to know, And though they delegate and plan an awful lot of stuff
The best laid plans may come to naught if times are mean and tough.

The things that really matter are discussed another place, It's in the kitchens of the world where folks talk face to face

And learn how they're supposed to act and how they oughta' think And bits of wisdom come from Mom who's busy at the sink.

The kitchen is the very place where all the family meet And it's the boardroom of the home and really can't be beat.
So if the kids have been taught well and know what's right or wrong The CEO's, with staff like that could end up with a song.

Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not turn from it.
Proverbs 22:6

Pictures

Have you wished you had your camera that's home up on a shelf Because your child with dog in tow is playing by himself?
He's not bothered with big problems—life's as good as it can get For when he's just a little guy you find his needs are met.
And so with not much going on your child can just relax And how you'd like a picture as he lives life to the max!
But then a lot of Moms and Dads are really pretty smart For they have found that they can take a picture with the heart.

Family Ties Will Last

Now just what is a family for if its not there to care-- A place each finds contentment and away from wear and tear.
Its fun to have our little jokes and kid about the past And know whatever comes to pass the family ties will last For sometimes life comes crashing in and things seem pretty bad, And if we find there's love at home a caring Mom and Dad Can help to get the wrinkles out and mend a thing gone wrong, And by the family's love and care can help restore their song.
There's no place like a family,
God planned it be this way,
And if we live in harmony We'll find love every day.

Children's children are a crown to the aged.
Proverbs 17:6

The Pickers

If you will look around, my friend, no two folks are the same;
Some really are laid back, you know, while others strive for fame.
It seems some stay right with the flow and seldom go up-stream, They kinda let the world go by without a goal or dream.

I rather think folks in between may have a lot to give-- They haven't stopped dead in their tracks so they know how to live.

Though some may pick the world apart and say how bad things are Some others pick apart their friends though they are near or far.

But aren't you glad that little folks know living at its best-- They aren't caught up in grown-ups games and now you've surely guessed The kids know what's important and each day that comes along They take it like it's meant for them and seldom do it wrong.

They don't complain about the world or what their neighbors do, They concentrate on just today so they don't sit and stew.
The kids take time to pick some flow'rs and make a spring bouquet And when they give it to their Mom it really makes her day!

From the lips of children and infants you have ordained praise. Psalms 8:2a

Despair Not

Don't ever despair of a child, my friend, No other gift that God could send Will equal the joy that a child can bring And cause the parent's hearts to sing.
If life seems hard, and sometimes tough,
A song and a prayer may be enough Along with love that never dies
To heal some wounds from children's cries.
Each one is precious in God's sight-- He wants them always treated right.
God trusts His child into your care,
So do your best, and don't despair.

And he (Jesus) took the children in his arms, put his hands on them and blessed them. Mark 10:16

Watch 'em Grow

Some folks can't seem to find a job while others start out small, They start by mowing sidewalks but that really isn't all—Sometimes the mower hits the grass and makes the green stuff fly; It takes a while to learn the trade when one's a little guy.

But watch that fellow as he grows, he'll learn a trade or two;
Might even go to college and find out what he should do.
Kids have a lot of brains, you know,
and often play it smart,
And if they're given half a chance they just might steal your heart.

Bedtime Stories

If Mom and Dad were busy it was nice to have a son Who'd read a bedtime story when daylight hours were done To give the kids some happy thoughts before they'd fall asleep And trust that God would through the night their trusting souls would keep.

'Twas back in olden times, it seems, that kids liked stories read So they'd have stuff to think about ere they were tucked in bed.
It seems that Peter Rabbit was a rascal most the time And caused McGregor lots of stress although he did no crime.

When Goldilocks tried out the chairs the Three Bears owned one day She found just one that really fit so didn't run away.
And then there was that awful troll beneath the bridge, you know, Who'd scare the travelers half to death if they that way would go;
And Humpty Dumpty on the wall,
 Jack Spratt who ate no fat, Old Mother Hubbard's empty shelves, some kids remember that.

Little Boy Blue who blew his horn, Bo Peep who lost her sheep Were stories much beloved by all and helped kids go to sleep.
I'm not too sure kids of today hear fairy tales and such,
It seems folks are too busy now to do this very much.
There's something about stories that can fill a child with joy And fairy tales should be a part of every girl and boy.

Scolding

The little folks make small mistakes
And right away receive A scolding or a reprimand Like you would not believe.
But older folks, when they grow up,
Can make a big mistake
And they don't want a reprimand
For all the goofs they make.
So lets make sure that when we scold
We don't give more than due,
And realize that like adults
The kids have feelings, too.
So next time when the milk is spilled Do not your child harass.
I've never seen a scolding that Puts milk back in the glass.

Fathers, do not embitter your children or they will become discouraged Colossians 3:21

Longevity

Some folks will live a lot of years and seldom see the Doc Who tunes 'em up a little bit and kinda' winds their clock.
I sometimes dwell on this a bit and wonder, could it be That folks inherit long, long lives straight from their family tree?

Or could it be they handle well the stress and strain of life And live in peace with other folks including kids and wife?
The folks who harbor hatred which has festered in their heart May shorten up their days on earth and cause 'em to depart.

Christ told us how we ought to think and how we ought to live, One thing that He said loud and clear is that folks should forgive.
If there's no hatred deep within, instead there is a song It might explain the reason why some oldsters live so long.

Forgive as the Lord
forgave you.
Colossians 3:13

The Oldsters

When folks get up in years, you know, they've learned a lot of stuff And yet in our fast moving world sometimes it's not enough To keep us up on top th' heap like things we oughta' know, But it could be we struggle some because our steps are slow.

And I would guess another thing that slows us down a bit Is that we've figured some things out as in our chair we sit.
We see success for what it is, we watch folks at the top And find that those who always rush just may not want to stop.

It's hard to smell the flowers if you're always on the run And folks who are too busy well might miss the setting sun.

The oldsters who have lived a while may have it figured out That those who take the time to live may know what life's about.

So don't pass by the older folks and think they are not smart For they have learned a lot of things and keep them in their heart.
It just might be when life is tough and you've a rainy day You'll find they have a list'ning ear and like the things they say.
